

Donald Thomson

As is evident from this pic, Donald is a bit of a bon viveur and likes nothing more than a good scoff.

Although he is now resigned to doing his training at the dinner table, in his younger days he participated in numerous sports, football being his favorite.

His direct talking and commonsense approach to problem-solving make him a valuable member of the Trust Committee.